

Buddy Mondlock

Writers and Club Owners say:

“Mondlock’s songs are like movies you want to see again. He starts with the same world we all see and hear, but he transforms the sights and sounds into revelations that delight and melodies that linger.”

Ed Morris - Billboard Magazine

“Buddy Mondlock is the most startling new songwriting talent I’ve heard this year. This guy is an American Original, a folk poet whose vision veers effortlessly from wild witticism to soul-piercing insights. Living proof that the troubadour tradition sings on.”

Robert K. Oermann - Syndicated Music Writer

“As acclaimed as he is as a songwriter, he is a fine performer who can create his share of magic with his high clear voice and inventive acoustic guitar.”

David Johnson - Boston Globe

“Buddy Mondlock, a south suburban Chicago native, has written for singers from Garth Brooks to Joan Baez. Now he is finding his own spotlight.”

Dave Hoekstra - Chicago Sun Times

“One of my favorites, Mondlock is brilliant in his word choice, poignant in his observations and powerful in his presentation.”

Kathleen Hudson - Kerrville Daily Times

“Since the first time I heard Buddy play in my office, I’ve loved his music. It’s always a pleasure to hear him and to have him play in the club.”

Amy Kurland - The Bluebird Cafe

“His songs are an express lane to the heart!”

Luce Myers - The Blue Heron
