

Understudies (Maia Sharp/Buddy Mondlock)

Well past show time
But the stars never showed
The crowd got restless
But the curtain stayed closed
There we were
Trying so hard to forget
Whose famous shoes we were filling
The scene was set
Breath in, breath out

CHORUS Two understudies step into the light
Hoping nobody will notice
Trying to make it through opening night
Never thinking 'bout the roses

The house got quiet
'Cause the show was getting good
And in that moment
We both understood
Screw the script
We could be the real thing
We kicked off those shoes we were filling
In the wings
No one was waiting

CHORUS Two understudies step into the light
Hoping nobody will notice
Trying to make it through opening night
Never thinking 'bout the roses

Inside the glow
Everything disappears
There's nobody left but the two of us
No fears
Just rose petals falling

CHORUS Two understudies step into the light
Hoping nobody will notice
Trying to make it through opening night
Never thinking 'bout the roses
